

GLENN S. HENDERSON

AFC WORLDWIDE EXPRESS

As CEO, I am honored to introduce to you our company, AFC Worldwide Express.

AFC is a transportation and logistic solutions company with a vision for providing the highest quality global transportation and logistic solutions in the industry. To fulfill our vision, we work hard to develop long-term strategic relationships with our customers. We also offer excellent services and solutions designed to complement their supply chain, and create a positive impact on their bottom line.

Our mission at AFC is to "consistently exceed our customers' expectations by providing excellence in logistics solutions and transportation services." The fulfillment of this mission requires solutions and services that are reliable, flexible, and predictable regardless of the situation. It also requires a leadership and organizational structure that is value-driven, change-oriented, and customer-focused.

At AFC, we believe that our people are our most valuable asset. Our leadership and staff are highly trained and motivated professionals dedicated to providing quality-driven results at every level. Each person has the power to make decisions that affect how we serve our customers, and in turn, our reputation in the marketplace and community. As a result, we expect the highest level of personal and professional conduct from all our employees and company representatives.

Our core values drive our decisions and define our corporate culture. They direct us in times of uncertainty and instability, and keep us focused on our vision and mission in times of prosperity and success. Service, leadership, teamwork, integrity, respect, responsibility, excellence, and innovation are more than just words at AFC; they are the standards by which we measure our daily performance and the baseline for our moral and ethical decisions.

At AFC Worldwide Express, we are committed to providing the highest quality transportation and logistics solutions and services possible. We hope this brochure will help you get to know us better, and that you will give us an opportunity to serve your transportation and logistics needs.
